Andrea Scarpati and Paolo Barrale are proud to present,

"Una cena Chic a quattro mani"

A tasting menu paired with wines from Feudi di San Gregorio, the wines of the vineyard where Paolo's beautiful restaurant "Marennà" is situated.
A wonderful evening of collaboration, with inspirational flavours and innovative technique working to bring you a fresh look at the incredible range and versatility of Italian food.

Andrea and Paolo met in March 2017 when Andrea was invited to become a member of the esteemed CHIC - Charming Italian Chef, an association of many great Chefs (more than fifty Michelin stars) who propose an authentic and innovative cuisine. So rare is this honour, that Andrea is the only UK chef that is part of CHIC. A great satisfaction for all the team and an achievement that once more highlights the authenticity of the Italian flavours at Sapori.

Come and join us for a special evening with delicious food, great wine and live music.
